You people really screw me! Our system of government is based on a system of checks and balances.
Nothing is supposed to have free run. What do you think is going to happen if the management of civil service government employees have to answer to no one but themselves? More graft, more corruption & more inefficiency & wasted money. You won't have any whistle blowers because no one will be there to protect them. The statement "national security" is covering a lot of power based actions - not true! We should be able to strike - so where's the security risk? Bogus! I'm a government employee AND I VOTE!

Sincerely,

Jan Robinson
